

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT DR JOHNSON'S HOUSE, 2017

VO'LUNTARY. adj. [volontaire, Fr. voluntarius, Latin.]

1. Acting without compulsion; acting by choice.
2. Willing; acting with willingness.

(Johnson, A Dictionary of the English Language, 1755)

Dr Johnson's House is a charming Georgian townhouse, nestled amongst a maze of courts and alleys in the historic City of London. Samuel Johnson, writer and wit, lived here in the mid-18th century, and compiled his great Dictionary of the English Language in the Garret. Today, the House is open to the public from Monday to Saturday, with collections relating to Johnson, restored interiors, and a research library.

Volunteering at the House:

Dr Johnson's House has a dedicated team of volunteers who provide invaluable support to our two members of staff, aiding the smooth running of the house. Volunteering can be a great way to meet new people and gain behind-the-scenes experience, and we recruit people of all ages and backgrounds to join our friendly volunteer team.

We regret that no travel expenses can be offered and no employment opportunities are available at the end of the period, although you will gain a great understanding of the many aspects of running an historic house museum and valuable experience in the heritage sector.

Not all placements require qualifications or previous experience, but an enthusiastic approach and an interest in Dr Johnson, and language and history is vital. Please refer to the person specification for each post.
